REFORM IN CITIES.

Our City Officers Report on the Meeting at Kansus City.

Mayor T. W. Harrison, Councilmen J. T. Fulton and Charles Fellows, City Attorney Tillotson and City Clerk McFad-Kan, where they attended the conven-tion of officers of cities of the first class. from which we clip the following:

There was no decisive action taken on changes to be recommended in charters of cities of the first class, but the meeting adjourned to January 3, when a session will be held in this city, and the changes desired, formulated. Committees of five from each city were appointed to meet January 2 to arrange the recommendations to be reported to

Changes in the charters were discussed lowing changes:

It caused me to stop drink-ing liquor. The second week I became aware of a wonderful change transpiring within me. I was gradually being transformed from a human slave into a liberty loving freeman. The desire for intoxicants was totally obliterated, and the poisonous effects of my long devotion at the shrine of bacchus were being rapidly eliminated from my system. The third week gave me a splendid appetite, re-freshing sleep, brightness of mind, pow-er of will, strength of body and vigor-ous manhood. And when at the end of four weeks I stepped from the Institute, out into God's glorious sunshine, pro-nounced cured, I could not help but direct by mental vision hopeward and breathe blessings upon the head of Dr. Leslie F.
